JUST IN TIME FOR A NEW ADMINISTRATION
CAPITOL STEPS RETURNS TO THE WARNER

TORRINGTON, CT – Back by popular demand with a brand new show Capitol Steps, an American political satire group, will return to the Warner Theatre in Torrington, CT on January 24 at 8pm. A cross between the satirical wit of John Stewart and the comedic musical styling of Mark Russell, Capitol Steps will have you roaring in the aisles.

The Capitol Steps began as a group of Senate staffers who set out in 1981 to satirize the very people and places that employed them. Since that time, they have released approximately thirty albums consisting primarily of song parodies. They've been featured on NBC, CBS, ABC, and PBS, and can be heard 4 times a year on National Public Radio stations nationwide during their Politics Takes a Holiday radio specials.

Since they began over 20 years ago, Capitol Steps has become a Washington, DC institution for providing a tasteful blend of musical and political comedy.

Tickets for this performance are $39.50, $29.50 and $19.50 for students showing ID at time of ticket pick up or purchase. For more information on purchasing tickets, please contact the Warner Theatre Box Office at (860) 489-7180 or visit the Warner Theatre Online at www.warnertheatre.org.

This performance is sponsored by Berkshire Alarm.

About the Warner

Built by Warner Brothers Studios and opened in 1931 as a movie palace, the Warner Theatre was described then as "Connecticut's Most Beautiful Theatre." Damaged extensively in a flood, the Warner was slated for demolition in the early 1980s until the non-profit Northwest Connecticut Association for the Arts (NCAA) was founded and purchased the theatre. The Warner reopened as a performing arts center in 1983, and restoration of the lobbies and auditorium was completed in November 2002. Today, the Warner is in operation year-round with more than 160 performances and some 92,000 patrons passing through its doors each season. NCAA's mission is to preserve the Warner Theatre as an historic landmark, enhance its reputation as a center of artistic excellence and a focal point of community involvement, and satisfy the diverse cultural needs of the region.
